A SALUTE TO AUTUMN

Grand Harvest Wine Festival set for Oct. 5 & 6

The Grand Harvest Wine Festival is back once again to celebrate a wonderful time of the year.

There is no better place to enjoy New Jersey on a crisp autumn afternoon than on the grounds of Fosterfields Living Historical Farm in Morristown. The event will be held Oct. 5 & 6 from noon to 5 p.m. both days.

Once you spend a day at this event you will know why so many people mark their calendars every year to attend this fabulous, seasonal festival. There is nothing like sitting in the back field surrounded by autumn leaves, enjoying delicious wine, listening to fabulous bands, enjoying culinary cuisine from some of New Jersey's best food trucks, shopping artisan crafters and just relaxing with family and friends.

New Jersey wineries always embrace this event as a time to salute autumn and unveil some of their newest offerings for the fall. Excitement for this annual event is quite astounding, with attendees inquiring about tickets months in advance. Pumpkin spice coffee, apple cider and hot cocoa are great, but nothing compares to a lovely fall afternoon surrounded by great people and even greater wineries. So come to enjoy a crisp fall weekend at New Jersey's salute to
